H. B. BRYANT'S Chicago Business College

This Institution Stands at the Head of the Schools of Commerce of the United States.

It is a well-known fact that Mr. H. B. BRYANT has had more experience in establishing and conducting Business Colleges than any other man in the country, having founded and put in successful operation, forty-eight Colleges in the principal cities of the United States and Canada. More than 40,000 Students attended these Colleges while under his management.

Mr. BRYANT is now giving his whole attention to the great institution located at Chicago.

Young men, middle-aged men and young women go to Chicago from all parts of the American Continent, knowing that the grandest of all the Practical Schools is located there, and their wants will be fully met in that great and growing city.

THIS COLLEGE IS ONE OF THE MOST PROMINENT AND PERMANENT INSTITUTIONS IN CHICAGO.

· It has more Students in attendance than any other Business College in America.

Its great patronage is the result of superior management, the great number of experienced instructors, and the thoroughness of the work in all departments. Graduates of our best Literary Colleges attend this Institution in large numbers, and are helped to positions as soon as prepared.

Scarcely a day passes that there are not several calls from Business Houses for help.

It affords the readiest introduction to business and professional life.

PREFACE.

This, the second volume of the Indiana State Gazetteer and Business Directory, is now presented to the public with the assurance that it will meet with the same approbation that was accorded to our first volume, and that it will be found correct in the main. It is replete with valuable information that can not fail to benefit the entire business community and prove a valuable source of information to all persons.

The present volume is entirely original. All descriptive and gazetteer matter has been freshly collected and re-written from information recently obtained. The general features of this work comprise a full description of each postoffice in the State, such as the location, population, nearest shipping point, location of nearest bank, township wherein located, distance and geographical direction from the county seat, express and telegraph companies, stage communications, and other statistics showing water power, mining interests and inducements to settlers and manufacturers. The present volume contains 1,212 pages of printed matter—an increase of 68 pages over the former volume—giving the names of 63,500 business houses, professional men and manufacturers. The map accompanying this work has been corrected up to date, showing all the numerous new railroads within the State, and is, in fact, the latest map issued.

Great care has been taken to make this volume complete in every particular, and we trust that it will meet with the kind approval of our patrons.

The subscription list of 1882 exceeds that of 1880 by over one-third, while the advertising department shows a vast increase over that of Volume I, which is the most conclusive evidence that the work is appreciated and sought after.

Thanks are kindly tendered to those who have rendered assistance in gathering information and statistics, especially the postmasters throughout the State, who have in nearly all cases promptly responded to our communications, and have given the required information. The season of 1882 has been an exceedingly prosperous one to all, as is shown by the bounteous crops throughout the entire State, and we tender our congratulations to the entire community upon the substantial business outlook, and trust that the same state of commercial activity may meet us on the publication of our next volume.

CAUTION.

Pay no money in advance to itinerant Directory Canvassers. We are led to mention this from the fact that certain parties have been fraudulently using our book as a specimen, and by that means collecting moneys in advance. We ask no payment until the work is delivered, and our solicitors have strict orders not to take payment for either advertisements or subscriptions.

CAUTION.

Pay no money in advance to itinerant Directory Canvassers. We are led to mention this from the fact that certain parties have been fraudulently using our book as a specimen, and by that means collecting moneys in advance. We ask no payment until the work is delivered, and our solicitors have strict orders not to take payment for either advertisements or subscriptions. R. L. POLK & CO.

INDIANA COLLECTION LAWS

Actions.—Must be brought in the name of the real party, in interest. The distinction between actions at law and suits in equity is abolished, and a single form denominated a civil action is substituted.

Atrest.—No imprisonment for debt except in cases of fraud.

Atrest.—No imprisonment for debt except in cases of fraud.

Atrachment.—May issue upon proper affidavit and bond when action is for the recovery of money in the following cases: (1) Where a defendant is a foreign corporation, or a non-resident of the State; or, (2) Where a defendant is secretly leaving, or has left the State, with intent to defraud creditors; or, (3) so conceals himself that summons can not be served upon him; or, (4) is removing, or is about to remove his property, subject to execution, or a material part thereof, out of the State, not leaving enough to satisfy plaintiff's claim; or, (5) has sold, conveyed or otherwise disposed of his property, subject to execution; or suffered, or permitted to be sold, with the fraudulent intent to cheat, hinder or delay his creditors; or, (6) is about to sell, convey or otherwise dispose of his property, subject to execution, with such intent. But no attachment shall issue where the plaintiff and principal defendant are both non-residents, and the money sought to be reached is the personal earnings or wages due or owing to the principal defendant from any person or corporation doing business in the State.

Chattel Mortrage.—Where mortrager retains possession, must, be, recorded within, 10 personal earnings or wages due or owing to the principal defendant from any person or corporation doing business in the State.

Chattel Mortgage.—Where mortgager resides, to be valid.

Commercial Paper.—See Notes and Bills.

Corporations.—Are organized under general laws. The only personal liability of stockholders of manufacturing and mining corporations is to pay the amount of stock subscribed by them respectively, except that such stockholders are individually liable for all debts due and owing laborers, servants, apprentices and employes for services rendered such corporations. (Laws Special Session 1875, p.29.) By Act of March 13, 1877, it is provided that the employees of any corporation doing business in this State, whether organized under the laws of the State or otherwise, shall be entitled to have a lien upon the corporate property and carnings of such corporation for all work and labor done therefor. Said lien to be prior to any and all liens created or acquired subsequent to the date of such employment, except that when any person, other than an employe shall acquire a lien upon the corporate property, and such lien shall remain a matter of record for 60 days in any county in this State where such corporation is located or doing business, and no lien shall have been acquired by any emyloyee of such corporation during that period, then such lien shall have priority over the lien of the employees, also, except any lien for purchase money. To acquire such lien the employee must have a notice of his intention to hold it recorded in the Recorder's office of the county where the corporation is located or doing business. The lien must be enforced within 6 months after acquiring it, or if a credit is given, from expiration of credit. (Law Special Session 1877, p. 27.)

Dower.—Tenancies by the courtesy and in dower are abolished. If a husband die testate or intestate, leaving a widow, one third of his real estate exceeds in value $20,000, one-fifth only as against the creditors. Provided, That where the real shall only be entitled to such interests in $20,000 or the same.

Evidence.—Parties in interest of equal competency with other witnesses; husband and wife can not testify for or against each other. Confidential communications to lawyers, physicians and ministers, made to them in their professional character, are privileged.

Execution.—Lieu on personal property, within the county, from the time of going into hands of officer, if several are out at the same time in hands of different officers, first levied has preference; and all lieus created by the prior delivery of any other execution shall be divested in favor of execution shall be divested in favor of execution for the same time in hands of different officers, first levied has preference; tion first levied and all liens created by the prior delivery of any other execution shall be divested in favor of execution first levied

Exemption.—$600 to resident householders, of any property they may select. The foregoing provision only applies to debts founded on contract, express or implied, entered into since about May 30, 1879, and does not affect any laborer's or mechanic's lien, nor lien for the purchase money of the real estate exempted. Upon contracts entered into before said date, there is only an exemption of $300. (As to exemptions in favor of married women, see Married Women.)

Foreign Corporations.—Agents of corporations not incorporated or organized in this State before entering upon the duties of their agency in the State, shall deposit in the Clerk's office of the county where they propose doing business therefor, the power of attorney, commission, appointment, or other authority under or by virtue of which they act as agents. Said agents shall procure from such corporations, and file with the Clerk of the Circuit Court of the county where they propose doing business before commencing the duties thereof, a duly authenticated order, resolution, or other sufficient authority of the Board of Directors, or managers of such corporations, authorizing the citizens or residents of this State, having a claim or demand against such corporations arising out of any transaction in this State with such agents, to suc for and maintain an action in respect to the sume in any court of this State of competent jurisdiction, and further authorizing service of process in such action on such agent, to be valid service on such "corporation, and that such service shall authorize judgment and all other proceedings against such corporation. Such foreign corporations shall not enforce in any courts of this State any contracts made by their agents, or persons assuming to act as their agents, or persons acting as agents when represented in any such not less than fifty dollars. The foregoing provisions do not apply to persons acting as of law do not apply to forcign corporations, or their agents, engaged wholly in the manufacture, use, or sale of patented articles in this State.

or sale of patented articles in this State.

Foreign Insurance Companies—Are prohibited from doing business in this State until they get a permit from the Auditor of State. Contracts made by such companies in this State, before they obtain such permit, are void.

Garnishment.—If at time, or before or after, an order of attachment issues, plaintiff, or some one in his behalf, shall file an affidavit that he has good reason to believe that any person [naming him] has property of the defendant in his possession, or under his control, which officer can not attach, or that such person is indebted to defendant, or has the control or agency of any property, moneys, credits or effects of defendant, a writ of garnishment shall issue against such person, and he shall be accountable to plaintiff for the amount of money, property or credits in his hands, or due from him to defendant from the time of service of the summons in garnishment, except that the wages of all persons in the employ of any person or corporation shall be exempt from garnishment and proceedings supplemental to execution in the hands of such person or corporation so long as such employe remains in such employment, not exceeding one month's wages at any one time. time

Grace, Days of.—All commercial paper payable in this State is entitled to three days of grace, except when the third day falls on a holiday, the paper matures the day before.

Holidays.—Sundays, January 1st, July 4th, December 25th, and any day appointed or recommended by the President of the United States, or Governor of this State, as a day of public fast or thanksgiving, shall be holidays within this State for all purposes of presenting for payment or acceptance for the maturity, protest and giving notice of the dishonor of all commercial paper, and all such paper falling due or maturing on either of said days shall be deemed as having matured on the day previous Interest.—By recent act, interest, in absence of contract as to same, is to be six per cent. Parties may agree in writing upon rate, but not to exceed eight per cent. If higher rate than eight per cent, be charged, excess over six per cent, vold and recoverable. Future judgments bear six per cent interest, unless contracts upon which judgment was recovered bear lower rate than the same rate. These rates apply to new contracts. The provisions relating to contracts made before the present act are as follows: Six per cent, ten per cent, valid on written agreement and may be taken in advance. Contracts for more than ten per cent, usurious only as to excess. Judgments on contracts made since the 5th of February, 1873, bear the same rate of interest up to ten per cent, as contracts bore at the time of rendition; but when no rate is expressed in such contract, or a greater rate than ten per cent, such judgment shall bear interest at the rate of six per cent.

Judgments.—Of Circuit and Superior Courts, and transcripts of judgments from Justices, filed in County Clerk's office, lien upon real estate within the county, with or without the issue of execution, ten years; but execution may be had after that time upon motion and affidavit and proper notice to adverse party.

Jurisdiction.—Justice's Courts $200 and under. Circuit and Superior Courts in all amounts, but on contracts plaintiff must recover $50 or over to cover costs.

Limitations.—Accounts and unwritten contracts six years; contracts in writing, judgments Interest.—By recent act, interest, in absence of contract as to same, is to be six per cent.

Limitations.—Accounts and unwritten contracts ix years; contracts in writing, judgments of courts of record and for the recovery of the possession of real estate, 20 years.

Married Women.—May dispose of separate personal property as if sole owner, and may carry on business, and enter into contract with respect thereto; can not sell her real estate or dispose of same except on lease not exceeding three years, or a mortgage to secure the purchase money, unless ber husband shall join therein; can make contract to improve her separate real estate, When liable her separate estate, both real and personal, may be taken on execution, but her wearing apparel and articles of adornment purchased by her not exceeding in value $200, all presents to her of jewelry, or amments, books, works of art, and other effects for personal or household use and other property [other than for purchase money thereof] to the amount of $300 shall be exempt from execution. She can not encumber her separate estate acquired by descent, devise, or gift as a security for the debt or liability of any person whomsoever.

Minors.—Not liable on their contracts; except for necessaries supplied for their support and education.

Notes and Bills.—Promissory notes, payable to order or bearer, at a bank in this State, and bills of exchange, are governed by the Law Merchant. Promissory notes, not payable at a bank, subject to any defense or setoff maker may have against payee, or any subsequent holder, accruing before notice of assignment. On last named notes [not payable in bank] maker must be exhausted before endorser can be sued. Protest not necessary to hold endorsers of such notes, but to hold them maker must be sued at first term of court after maturity, unless he is shown to have been insolvent at time of such matnrity

Partnerships.—Are general or limited. In a general partnership each member [except married women and minors] is jointly and severally liable for all the debts of the firm. Limited partnerships, for the transaction of mercantile, mechanical, or manufacturing [but not banking or insurance] business may be formed by one or more general partners and one or more special partners. The special partners shall contribute to the common stock a specified sum in cash, and shall not be liable for any debts of the partnership, except for some violation of their rights and duties as special partners. No such partnership shall be deemed to have been formed until all the partners shall sign, ackowledge and have recorded in the Recorder's office of the county where their principal place of unsiness is located a certificate containing the name or firm under which such partnership is to be conducted, the full name and residence of all general and special partners, amount of capital contributed by each special partner, the general nature of their business, and when the partnership is to commence and terminate. A copy of said certificate shall be published for six successive weeks immediately after such registry in a newspaper published in said county, but if no paper is published in said county, then in a newspaper of this State nearest thereto; and if such publication is not made, the partnership shall be deemed general. The business shall be conducted by and in the name of the general partners; and if the special partners. The capital stock shall not be reduced during the continuance of the partnership.

Redemption.—Real estate sold on execution or decree may be redeemed within one year from date of sale by payment of amount for which it was sold, with ten per cent, thereon from date

of sale

Registry Laws.—Deeds and mortgages of real estate must be recorded within 45 days. If notso recorded, good as between parties thereto, but not as against innocent parties acquiring interest after their execution, and before the actual recording thereof.

Statute of Frauds.—No action shall be brought in any of the following cases: (1) To charge an executor or administrator upon any special promise, to answer damages out of his own estate; or,
(2) to charge any person upon any special promise, to answer for the debt, default, or miscarriage of another; or, (3) to charge any person upon any agreement or promise made in consideracion of marriage; or, (4) upon any contract for the sale of lands; or, (5) upon any agreement that is not to be performed within one year from the making thereof, unless the promise, contract or agreement upon which such action shall be brought, or some memorandum or note thereof, shall be in writing, and signed by the party to be charged therewith, or by some person thereunto by him lawfully authorized, excepting leases not exceeding three years. The consideration need not be expressed therein. Part performance of such agreements takes them out of operation of the statute. No action shall be maintained to charge any person by reason of any representation made concerning the character, conduct, reedit, ability, trade, or dealings of any other person, unless the same is in writing, and signed by the party to be charged. No contract for the sale of goods for the price of $50 or more shall be valid, unless the purchaser shall receive part of such property, or give something in earnest to bind the bargain or in part payment, unless some note or memorandum thereof is in writing and signed by the state of Exceptions. May be lead to be charged.

Stay of Execution.—May be had by giving one or more sufficient freehold sureties; in higher courts, 30 days on judgments of $6 or under; over $1 and not exceeding $20, 90 days; and up to $10, 120 days; over $40 and up to $100, 150 days; 180 days all sums over $100. In Justice's Courts substantially same, except that 180 days are given on all Valuation and Appraisment Laws.—Contracts waiving relief from, are valid, and judgments are rendered thereon to be so enforced.

Voluntary Assiguments.—Any debtor or debtors in embarrassed or failing circumstances may make a general assignment of all his or their property, in trust for the benefit of his or their bona fide creditors.

DIGEST OF UNITED STATES PATENT LAWS

COMPILED BY

KNIGHT BROTHERS.

Solicitors of Patents, Mechanical and Patent Law Experts,

No. 75 WEST FOURTH ST., CINCINNATI, OHIO.

The Law of Patents.—A patent is a contract between the public and the invertor of a new and useful art or manufacture, whereby, in consideration of a complete disclosure of the invention, the exclusive right thereto, for a limited period, is guaranteed to the inventor and his legal representatives. (Whitney vs. Emmett, Baldwin, J., 319.)

A [U. S.] Patent for seventeen years is granted to the first inventor of a new and useful art, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter not heretofore known in this country, nor published or patented in any foreign country. Application fee, $15. Issue, $20. (Revised Statutes, 4883.)

The Invention, if new and useful to the public, may be the result either of long experiment and profound research, or of a sudden and lucky thought, or of mere accidental discovery. * *

Luck, labor or inspiration gives an equal right. (Tindal L. C. J.)

There is no doubt that he who has discovered some new element or property of matter may secure to himself the ownership of his discovery so soon as he has been able to illustrate its practicability and to demonstrate its value. His patent, in such a case, will be commensurate with the principle it announces to the world, and may be as broad as the mental conception itself. But the mental conception must have been susceptible of embodiment, and must, in fact, have been embodied in some mechanical device, or in some process or art. The abstract must be resolved into the concrete. The patent must be for a thing, not for an idea merely. (Kane, J., U. S. D. C. Pa.)

When devices, however well known in other machines or for other purposes, have never been employed in a given machine, or for purposes suggestive of the new application, legitimate combinations may be found embodying such old devices. (Underwood, exparte C. D., 1870, p. 52.)

Although from the standpoint of after time it might seem difficult to see that a particular combination of elements should have required the exercise of invention, and its consequences taken together, are consi order of date.

Nore.—'Conception' of an invention has been held to take date from the first placing on record or communication to another person of such a description as would have enabled one skilled in the art to put it in execution.

Note.—An invention is construed to be "matured" either by complete description in a patent or by such public use as would have worked abandonment if it had occurred more than two years prior by such public use as would have worked abandonment if it had occurred more than two years prior to the application for patent.

(Law's Digest, pp. 427 et seq., O. G., vol. 9, pp. 1010, 1195 and 1196, and vol. 18, p. 1226.)

Equivalents.—The inventor of a first improvement can not invoke the doctrine of mechanical equivalents to suppress all other improvements which are not mere colorable evasions of the first. (McCormick vs. Talcott, Whitman's Patent Cases, vol. 1, p. 1085.)

(See also Bain vs. Morse. Cranch, Chief Justice, D. C., 1849. Burr vs. Duryee, U. S. Sup. C., 1st Wallace, 531.)

NOTE.—A "mechanical equivalent" is a substitute known to the art.

An Improver upon an original patent has no right to use the original, nor has the original patentee a right to use the improvement, without license. (1 Peters, C. C. 339.)

Mere Colorable Differences, or slight improvements, can not shake the right of the original inventor. (2 Gall, 54.)

Combination.—A combination claim is not infringed by the use of any number of parts less than the whole. (3 M'Lean, 454.)

No legitimate patentable combination exists between two things which do not co-operate in producing the result. (Com. Dec. 1869, p. 16.)

NOTE.—"Legitimate combination" exists where two or more parts act together in a new way with a useful result.

Claims.—An applicant may describe a genus and several species of the genus, and make a generic claim covering them all, and he may also select one of the embodiments of his invention for a specific claim. Other embodiments may be protected in as many separate patents. (C. D. 1870, p.

Articles of Manufacture.—There are two recognized and reliable tests of the utility of an article of manufacture; the first referring to its functions of operation, and the second to its cost of production, and it is immaterial whether an article of manufacture works a benefit in what it does when in use, or in what it sares as a substitute in cost of production. It is, in either case, endowed with that element of usefulness required to render it patentable. (Com. Dec. 1872, p. 143.)

Material.—While mere change of material in a fabric may not involve invention, and conse-

Material.—While mere change of material in a fabric may not involve invention, and consequently, not be patentable, yet where the change is sought and accomplished for the purpose of producing a new effect, or for accomplishing a new or improved result, then it becomes more than a mere change of material, and may be patentable. (Com. Dec. 1871, p. 276.)

Duplication.—Duplication of parts which gives a new and useful result is patentable. (Com. Dec. 1872, pp. 34 and 134.)

Prior Description in a public work—if relied upon as' ground for refusing an application for patent by the Patent Office, or for the invalidation by a court of a patent, already granted—must be such a description as would be sufficient in a patent. (Parker vs. Stiles, McLean, Nov. 1849.)

Joint Inventors are entitled to a joint patent, but neither can claim one separately.

Independent Inventors of separate improvements in the same machine cannot obtain a joint patent for their separate inventions, nor does the fact that one man furnishes the capital, and the other makes the invention, entitle them to take out a joint patent, but the patent will issue jointly upon suitable assignment. (C. D. 1869.)

Assignments may be made previous to application, and should be recorded in the United States Patent Office within three months. (Rev. Stat. 4895.)

Assignments may be made previous to application, and should be recorded in the United States Patent Office within three months. (Rev. Stat. 4895.)

A Foreigner may obtain a patent on the same terms as a citizen. (Rev. Stat. 4892.)

Rule of Classification.—The creator of an art, as, for example, the inventor of the first watch, would be entitled to a patent including in as many claims, the several distinctive elements of its mechanism; but when, in the progress of the art, the efforts of inventors have been directed to the separate parts of the watch, and, at their requests, patents have been issued upon such separate parts, a corresponding classification of subjects necessarily arises in the office, and must be observed in convictories any subsequent applications relating to the general class.

observed in considering any subsequent applications relating to the general class. (C. D. 1871, p. 210.)

Abandonment.—If an inventor, before application for patent, knowingly suffers his invention to go into public and general use without objection, it is a dedication of it to the public. [4 Mason, 108.]

No patent is held to be invalid by reason of the purchase, sale or use prior to the application, except on proof of the abandonment of the invention to the public; or that such purchase, sale or prior use has been for more than two years prior to such application for patent. [Rev. Stat. 4886.]

The Specification must set forth the invention in such full, clear and exact terms, describing the best mode known to applicant of carrying out the principle of the invention, as to enable one skilled in the art to which it appertains to compound and use it without making any experiments of his own. [5 Howard, 4. Rev. Stat. 4888.]

Application for Letters Patent must be within two years after the first sale or public use of the invention, and must be accompanied by a Petition, Oath, Duplicate Drawings, Specification and Fee [815]. It must be made by the inventor, or, if deceased, by his administrator, for the benefit of the heirs. [Rev. Stat. 4887, 4896.]

Date of Issue.—The present practice of the Patent Office is to set up the specification in type, and to prepare a photo-lithographic plate of the drawing, and to bind one printed copy of each with the certificate of grant. A consequence of this printing is a delay of about three weeks from payment of final fee to date and delivery of the patent. [Patent Office, Rule 213.]

Models are not now required unless called for by examiner. [Patent Office, Rule 55, Revised March 1, 1880.]

March 1, 1880.

Parentles are required to mark each article made or vended under their patent, or, where this is impracticable, to mark the package, with the word "patented," and the day and year; but infringers, who have been duly notified, are liable, notwithstanding the omission of such marking by the patentee. [Rev. Stat. 4900.]

Penalty of not less than $100 and costs is incurred for each fraudulent marking of unpatented articles with the word "patent," or like phrase, or for unauthorized use of a patentee's mark. [Rev. 1800]

Reissue.—Patents with defective specifications may be reissued in an amended form. Gov. fee, $30, [Rev. Stat., Sec. 4895 and 4917.]

Matter so described in the original specification that it might have been claimed in the original patent may properly be claimed in the reissue. [O. G. vol. 19, p. 173.]

In Applications for Patents the Examiner should interfere as little as possible with the language chosen by the applicant in describing his invention. The largest latitude should be allowed; but in application for reissues a different rule prevails. The rule is: Liberality with original applications; strict construction with applications for reissue. [Com. Dec. 1872, p. 118.]

Disclaimer.—Where, by inadvertance, accident, or mistake, the original patent is too broad, a disclaimer may be filed, either by the original patentee, or by any of his assignees. Fee $10. [Rev. Stat 4917.]

Stat.

Extension of a Patent can now be obtained only by an act of Congress. [Const. U. S.,

Art. 1, Sec. 8.]

A Caveat is useful as a precautionary step, in cases where the inventor requires further time

A Caveat is useful as a precautionary step, in cases where the inventor requires turther time or means to mature his invention, and entitles the party (for a year) to notice of any interfering application subsequently filed. Gov. fee, $10. [Rev. Stat. 4902.]

Design.—A patent for 3½, 7 or 14 years is allowed to any citizen of the United States who originates a new carving or sculpture composition, or a new shape or configuration of any article of manufacture, or a new ornamental, or useful design, pattern or picture, to be worked into, or printed or painted, or cast, or otherwise attached to any article of manufacture. Gov. Fee, $10, $15, or $30. [Rev.

A Part Owner of a patent may, in the absence of any contract, assign his interest or any fractional part thereof, or he may, either alone or in company with others, purchase or make as many machines as he pleases, and may sell them to others with the right to use or sell them; or he may refuse to sell them, and may rent them; but he has no power to control the action of nor to exercise any supervision ever a co-proprietor, nor to compel contribution of profits or losses, nor to enforce a partition of the right, nor is either party under any obligation to make the property profitable. Such parties must be regarded as having interests which are distinct and separate in their nature, though derived from the same instrument; and having the same interests, with the right to use them separately, they cannot for any legal use of them, incur any obligation to each other. ANDERSON. The seat of justice for Madison county is a progressive, important city of 5,000 inhabitants, pleasantly located on the west fork of White river, 36 miles northeast of Indianapolis and 119 northwest of Cincinnati. Its railroad facili-ties consist of the C. C. C. & I., C. W. & M., P. C. & St. L. and the C. I. & St. L. roads. It is the eastern terminus of the last mentioned. Anderson was settled in 1822, incorporated in 1823, and was made the county seat in 1828. Prior to 1828, Pendleton was the seat of justice for the county, but as this was the most central and most important town in the county, it was chosen as the county seat, since which time it has steadily increased in commerce and manufacture, and is to-day one of the most important cities of its size in the State. It has many handsome residences, good business blocks, is lighted by gas, has a volunteer fire department, 1 public . hall, 4 churches, excellent schools, a public library of 500 volumes, 3 hotels, 3 banks and 3 weekly newspapers—Herald, Democrat, and Review. Among the recent improvements here is the new jail, just completed at a cost of $21,000, and a court house under course of construction, which will rank among the finest public buildings in the State. It covers an area of 216 feet square, will be constructed out of pressed brick, with stone trimmings, and will cost about $150,000. The city has the following manufactories: 3 stave and heading factories, 2 furniture factories, 1 foundry guage cock factory, 3 saw mills, 1 tannery, a pump factory, 1 shoe factory, 2 planing mills, a brickyard, 2 flour mills, 1 bent wood factory, and a hub and spoke factory. ATTICA. The chief commercial town of Fountain county, is an enterprising, . thrifty place of 3,000 inhabitants, pleasantly located on the east fork of the Wabash river, 14 miles northwest of Covington court house, and 22 southwest of Lafayette. Attica was settled in 1825, and is now a busy commercial place, surrounded by a rich agricultural district. Its transportation facilities consist of the W. St. L. & P. and C. & B. C. Rys. It is the present northern terminus of last mentioned road. The city supports 6 churches - Methodist, Baptist, Presbyterian, Catholic, Christian and Jewish synagogue—one of the finest graded school buildings in the State, 2 hotels, a handsome opera house, 1 public library, 1 private and 1 national bank, and a weekly newspaper, The Attica Ledger. Its water supply is obtained from a reservoir supplied by natural inexhaustible springs, and is amply sufficient for consumption and fire protection. Prominent among its manufactories are 4 flour mills, a drain tile factory, 1 saw mill, 2 carriage factories, 1 planing mill, 1 brick yard, and 1 foundry. Grain is extensively grown, and is the chief article of export. Ex., Pacific. Tel., W. U. James Martin, postmaster.

on the Ohio river and the O. & M. Ry., 4 miles from Lawrenceburgh court house, 25 from Cincinnati, and 90 from Indianapolis. The city was laid out in 1819, incorporated in 1848, and is an enterprising, commercial city, well lighted by gas, has a good fire department, many substantial business blocks, fine residences, and has one of the most pleasant locations to be found on the Ohio river. It contains 12 churches of different denominations, 2 large graded schoools, a fine opera house (seating capacity, 600), 1 national bank, several hotels, and 2 weekly newspapers—Saturday News and Dearborn Independent. Aurora is essentially a manufacturing place, prominent among its mills, factories, etc., are 2 flour mills, a furniture factory, a large distillery (said to be the largest in the State), 1 foundry, a chair factory, 2 saw mills, I nail foundry, 2 brick yards, a machine shop, and a brewerv. These institutions are in a flourishing condition, and operated very successfully. There is every facility offered here for manufacture, and the cheap river transportation in connection with the railroad, gives it a market all over the U. S., for its manufactured goods. Bonded debt, $23,000. The city has O. & M. and Adams Ex., telephone and telegraph facilities. Daily stage to Rising Sun and Hartford. John Walker, restricted. postmaster.

BLUFFTON. The county seat of Wells county, is an incorporated city of 3,000 inhabitants, pleasantly located on the Wabash river, 25 miles south of Ft. Wayne, and 120 northeast of Indianapolis. It is traversed by the Ft. W., C. & L. and T. C. & St. L. R. R's, and is surrounded by one of the most fertile agricultural districts in North-ern Indiana. The city is rapidly improving, both in commerce and manufacture; a large number of new business blocks are under course of construction. Among its recent improvements is the county jail, erected in the winter of 1880-81, at a cost of $24,000, which is a very handsome structure, and in fact, nearly all of its buildings, both public and private, are both substantial and handsome. Its principal business

BOURBON. Is an incorporated town of 1500 inhabitants, pleasantly located on the P., Ft. W. & C. R'y, in township of same name, county of Marshall, 10 miles southeast of Plymouth, the county seat. Bourbon is rapidly becoming known as a manufacturing centre, and to capitalists it offers advantages unsurpassed by any town of its size in northern Indiana. Its prominent manufacturing industries comprise 2 flour mills, 2 saw mills, 3 brick yards, a tile factory, 1 planing mill, 2 ax handle factories, a large boat oar factory and the Swine Panacea establishment of C. B. McKinney, Sons & Co. The business interests of the place includes several substantial commercial houses, 2 hotels and 3 weekly newspapers—Reviev, Mirror and Democrat. A bank, with from $25,000 to $50,000 capital would prove very profitable. The village sustains 4 churches, a good graded school, 1 opera house, a volunteer fire department, and is nearly free from debt. Lumber, grain, boat oars, produce, live stock and ax handles comprise its chief exports. This is one of the most enterprising towns of its size in the State. Its commercial and manfacturing business for 1881, was about $1,000,000. Tri-weekly stage to Tippecanoetown; fare, 50 cents. Ex., Adams. Tel., W. U.—Ignatius Mattingly, postmaster.

BRAZIL. The most important coal mining town in the State, is the county seat of Clay county, located on the St. L., V., T. H. & I., and C. & E. I. R. R's., 57 miles west of Indianapolis, and 16 east of Terre Haute. This is an enterprising manufacturing and commercial town of 4,500 inhabitants, and contains 5 churches-Methodist, Presbyterian, Catholic, Christian and Baptist—good graded schools, a business college, public library and 2 banks, 3 hotels. The press is represented by 4 weekly papers—Miner, Register, Democrat, and Clay County Enterprise. The most important feature of Brazil is its immense deposits of block coal, which is extensively mined and shipped, there being 7 mines in daily operation, employing a large force of miners, who receive in payment for their labor over $40,000 per month. Its manufacturing interests comprise 3 foundries, 2 flour mills, a blast furnace, 1 pottery, 2 planing mills, 1 rolling mill, a furniture factory, cooper shop, and 1 woolen mill. It is lighted by gas, has good water-works, a fire department, substantial county build-

TEETOR'S DIAMOND MILL-STONE DRESSER.

Patented in different countries. Originally patented in America October 5th, 1880, and reissued August 30th, 1881.

The following sets forth some of the points of excellence embodied in this machine, which will recommend its adoption in preference to other and higher priced machines of its class which can not cope with it in all respects:

It will dress buhrs running either with or against the sun, and will dress furrows true to any practical

More work can be done with this machine than any other of its class in the market, because it is more easily and quickly adjusted than any other

Dresser,
The feed can be instantly increased, decreased or reversed from right to left, or the opposite, while the carriage is in motion.

The feed controller is portable, and can be moved to any part of the machine, to accommodate in short-stroke work.

The guide plate can be so adjusted that the furrows may be cut more or less at the eye than at the skirt, and also for bosoming the buhr. This machine is especially warranted to be more convenient to operate than any other Presser in the market.

All of the adjustments and regulations can be accomplished without the use of any tool, wrench or screw-driver. From eight to six hundred cuts can be made to the inch with our feed, which is not possible with any other feed in use.

possible with any other feed in use.

The entire range of work ever required in mill-stone dressing is within the scope of this machine.

There are no extra attachments required to accomplish the different kinds of work. It is a complete machine in itself. It has a circular disc clamp, which holds the diamond as firmly as though it were solid setting. The diamond can be reset in a moment's time.

The guides are so constructed that the earriage can not rise and wedge into them during the process of heavy work, which is the case in so many of the machines in the market.

COLUMBUS. The county seat of Bartholomew county, is a flourishing incorporated city of 5,500 inhabitants, located on the main line of the J., M. & I. R. R., at its junction with the Madison and Rushville branches, 41 miles south of Indianapolis and 69 north of Louisville. It is surrounded by probably the most fertile agricultural district in the State. Nearly the entire county is under a very high state of cultivation, and in the growth of wheat it has no superior in Indiana. Haw and Flat Rock creeks both empty into White river at or near the city. Columbus is a handsomely laid out city, noted for its excellent county buildings, substantial business blocks and handsome residences. It is lighted by gas, has good water works and a well organized fire department. The city supports 6 hotels, 2 banks, an opera house, several churches, 2 graded schools and 2 newspapers—Democrat and Republican—both are issued both daily and weekly. Its manufacturing interests, while not very numerous, are quite substantial and add greatly to the wealth of the city. They consist of 3 flour mills, carriage factory, 2 planing mills, 1 foundry, furniture factory, tannery, brewery, starch factory, hominy mills and 1 stave and heading factory. The Adams Express and W. U. Telegraph companies have well equipped offices here. Daily mail. Isaac T. Brown, postmaster. Adams Clarence W, druggist.

CONNERSVILLE. The county seat of Fayette county, is an incorporated city of 4000 inhabitants, pleasantly located on White Water river, 58 miles southeast of Indianapolis, 67 northwest of Cincinnati and 20 southwest of Richmond. This is probably the handsomest town in the state. It contains many fine residences, good business blocks, wide streets, beautifully lined with shade trees and has every appearance of a thrifty, enterprising place. The bonded debt amounts to $11,000. It is well lighted by gas, has good water works, a well equipped fire department, 1 opera house, 6 churches, high and graded schools, 1 private and 1 national bank, 2 hotels and 2 weekly newspapers—Examiner and Times. Prominent among its manufacturing establishments are 3 large furniture factories, a planing mill, hosiery factory, 2 saw mills, 2 machine shops, a pump factory, 2 cooper shops, 1 broom factory, a brewery, 2 flour mills, 1 cigar box factory and silver plating works. A portion of above mentioned derive power from White river. Its transportation facilities consist of 3 railroads— W. W., C. H. & I. and Ft. W., C. & L., and these, with its excellent water power and eligible location, gives it unusual advantages for all kinds of manufacture. Furniture and grain are the chief exports. Ex., U. S. and Am. ELKHART. One of the most important manufacturing and commercial places in Northern Indiana, is a progressive incorporated city of 10,000 inhabitants, pleasantly located on the St. Joseph and Elkhart rivers, in Concord township, Elkhart county, 10 miles northwest of Goshen, the county seat, 101 east of Chicago, 60 northwest of Ft. Wayne, and 150 northeast of Indianapolis. It is traversed by the L. S. & M. S. and C. W. & M. Rys., and is a very important station for both roads. The city is lighted by gas; has excellent works; a good and well equipped fire department; has real and personal property (assessed value) amounting to $2,250,-000, and carries a bonded debt of $10,-Its educational and religious advantages are most excellent, and comprise 1 high and 5 ward schools, employing 24 teachers, with an enrollment of 1,400 scholars, and several very handsome church edifices, belonging to nearly all kinds of prominent religious societies. The city supports 7 hotels, 3 banks and 5 newspapers—Monitor and Review, published daily and weekly, and Elkhart County Journal, issued weekly. The most important feature of Elkhart is its extensive manufactories, which include 4 paper mills, 2 straw board mills, 2 knit goods factories, a band instrument factory, 3 planing mills, 2 wind mill factories, 1 saw mill, 2 starch factories, 2 foundries, car works, 5 flour mills and 2 box factories. A large portion of the mills and factories derive water power from rivers above mentioned. This is an excellent point for the location of any kind of manufacturing establishment, as it offers most excellent water power and transportation facilities. Ex., U.S. Tel., W. U. F. W. EVANSVILLE. The county seat of Vanderburg county, is pleasantly located on the Ohio river, 192 miles from Indianapolis, 161 from St. Louis and 250 from Louisville. This is the most important manufacturing and commercial city in southern Indiana and is the second in population, commerce and manufacture in the state. It is surrounded by a very rich agricultural district, is rapidly improving in every respect and for thrift and general activity has no equal in the state. The river gives it direct water transportation with all of the river cities from Pittsburgh to New Orleans.

TRANSPORTATION FACILITIES.

In addition to its splendid river transportation, Evansville has 3 railroads as follows. The Evansville & Terre Haute, with its southern terminus and general offices here, thus giving it direct connection with Chi-The St. Louis division of the Louisville & Nashville road has its eastern terminus at this point and runs direct to St. Louis, and the Louisville, Evansville & St. Louis (Evansville division) railroad. The last mentioned will in the near future probably extend their line to Indianapolis, which will give direct eastern connection with the trunk lines.

MANUFACTURE.

This is essentially a manufacturing city and is rapidly increasing in this line. Prominent among its many mills, factories, etc., are 7 large furniture factories, which employ a large number of hands and have capital invested amounting to over $1,000,-000, 3 plow factories, 4 tanneries, 15 saw mills, 2 potteries, 2 woolen mills, 4 stave and heading factories, 6 flour mills, 5 stove foundries, 6 planing mills, 3 breweries, 4 cooper shops and several other establishments engaged in the manufacture of brass goods, iron castings, brick, boot and shoe uppers, agricultural implements, wash-boards, boxes, carriages, tools, boilers, engines, steam pumps, steamboat machinery, whips, soap, hominy, architectural iron works, sails, white lead, overalls, bagging, coffins, mattresses, vinegar, cotton goods and brooms.

GENERAL FEATURES.

Evansville contains 30,000 inhabitants, has real and personal property, assessed value amounting to $19,305,765, is well lighted by gas, has street railways, good water works, a well-equipped and efficient fire department, several handsome church edifices, graded and high schools, a business college, the St. Mary's Hospital, a fine opera house, public library, board of trade, stock yards, custom house, telephone exchange (which runs wires to all the adjoining towns), and several good hotels. Its public buildings are substantial, resinences handsome, and the general appearance of the city is one of activity and thrift.

BANKS.

The city has 7 banking institutions, 5 national, 1 private, and I savings bank, representing in capital and surplus over $2,500,000.

THE PRESS

is represented here by 6 daily, 1 tri-weekly and 8 weekly papers. The Courier, Demokrat, Tribune and Union are published both daily and weekly; the News daily only. The Journal is issued daily, tri-weekly and weekly, while the Argus, Bulletin and Indiana Post are weekly publications.

New York Life Ins. Co. Was the first to issue Non-Forfeitable Policies. No suicidal clause or objectionable restrictions in its policies. J. W. Dean, Gen'l Ag't, INDIANAPOLIS.

FORT WAYNE. The chief commercial and manufacturing city of Northern Indiana, contained in 1880, 26,048 inhabitants, which has now increased to over 30,000. It is the county seat of Allen county, and the second city in the state in point of manufacture and thrift. The city is located nearly in the geographical centre of the county, distant from Chicago 148, Indianapolis 135, Toledo 94, and St. Louis 342 miles.

TRANSPORTATION FACILITIES.

Fort Wayne has excellent railroad advantages, being traversed by six roads as follows: The main line of Wabash, St. Louis and Pacific, which reaches from Toledo, O., to St. Louis, Mo., thus giving it unbroken connection with all the leading western roads, as well as its own branches and leased lines. The Pittsburgh, Ft Wayne and Chicago is the second in importance, and has its shops located here which give employment to over 1,000 hands. Grand Rapids and Indiana road, with its leased lines is the most important north and south line in the State. The Fort Wayne, Jackson and Saginaw has its southern terminus here, and is an important road. The Fort Wayne, Cincinnati and Louisville road make this its northern terminus, and the location of the general offices and shops. The New York, Chicago and St. Louis Railway, "nickel plated," is a new road with main line extending from Chicago to Buffalo.

RELIGIOUS AND EDUCATIONAL.

Fort Wayne may well boast of her educational facilities, for in addition to several handsome graded school buildings, there are the following well known insti-tutions of learning: The Fort Wayne College; the Medical College of Fort Wayne, an institution that has earned the reputation of being one of the most thorough of its kind in the State; the Fort Wayne College of Medicine; the Concor-dia College; St. Augustine Academy, an excellent business college and a musical conservatory; the Academy of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart, located at Academy, 7 miles northeast of city, may also be reck-oned as one of Fort Wayne's institutions. This most excellent academy is conducted by the sisters of the Holy Cross, and is not excelled by any in the State. The city has a large number of handsome church edifices, representing all the popular religious societies.

MANUFACTURES.

This is essentially a mannfacturing city, and can boast of the largest establishments in the State. The most prominent among the mills, factories, etc., are the extensive works of the Bass Foundry and Machine Works of the Bass Foundry and Machine Works, Fort Wayne Organ Company, Peters' Box and Lumber Company, Centlivre's French Brewery, and S. Pennock's Sons & Co., road scraper salesrooms. The Bass Foundry and Machine Works is the largest car wheel manufactory in the Luited States, it was established in 1853. United States; it was established in 1853, and incorporated in 1873. The foundry alone is 75 by 800 feet, and the entire works cover an area of 129,300 square feet. John H. Bass, president of the concern, also owns the Chicago car works, and a steam forge for the manufacture of car and locomotive axles. In addition to car wheels they manufacture steam engine boilers, railroad castings, mill and heavy machinery, etc. These works are an important adjunct to the wealth of Fort Wayne, and give employment to a large number of her inhabitants. The Fort Wayne Organ Company, organized in 1871, employs over 100 hands, and is the most successful factory of its kind in the west. The works and lumber yards cover over 3 acres of ground Their instruments are rapidly becoming known to be of the best manufacture, and find a market not only in the United States, but in Europe as well. The Peters Box and Lumber Company is also a very im-portant concern to Fort Wayne. It is the largest of its kind in the State, and has a reputation that is unexcelled. Its prominent manufactured articles consist of tobacco pails, road scrapers, refrigerators, packing boxes, sash, doors and blinds, chair stock, school and all other kinds of furniture. The Centlivre Brewery was established in 1862, and is the fourth largest in the State, having a capacity of 15,000. barrels per year. It is owned and conducted by Mr. C. L. Centlivre. S. Pennock Sons & Co. have established a branch here of their well-known Kennett Square, Pa., Works. They manufacture a superior quality of road scrapers and machines, and Fort Wayne is quite fortunate in having secured their location. The above-mentioned do not comprise, by any means, all of the manufactories located here, for, in addition to these, the city produces furni-ture, band-saw mills, truss hoops, mattresses, earthenware, leather, pumps, handles, carriages, barrels, kegs, linseed oil, plows, crackers, castings, sash, doors and blinds, stoves, flour, grain cradles, lumber, files, stirrups, potash, brushes, woolen goods, wheels, staves, horse collars, soap, pork, overalls, mineral water, engines and boil-

NEWSPAPERS.

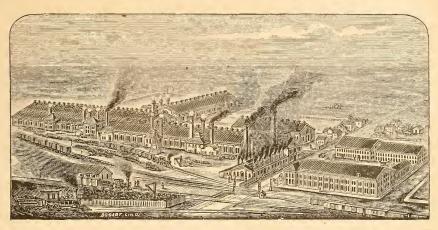

The press is represented by 5 dailies the Sentinel, News, Gazette, Journal and Staats-Zeitung—and 8 weekly papers. The last named are known as the Dispatch, News, Mail, Journal, Sentinel, Herald, Gazette and Staats-Zeitung, which gives it a very strong press influence throughout Indiana and portions of Ohio.

GENERAL FEATURES.

Fort Wayne has broad, clean streets, is compactly built, has substantial business blocks, is lighted by gas and electric light, has a telephone exchange, excellent water works, a well organized fire department, several miles of street railway, good county buildings, an excellent theatre, 17 hotels, and 1 private and 3 national banks. It is rapidly increasing its commercial trade, and the outlook for the future is very flattering. The city has much private wealth, its citizens are industrious, enterpris-ing and liberal, and Fort Wayne is in fact a prosperous, growing place, with great natural advantages for manufacture, being situated at the head of the Maumee, and on the St. Joseph river at its confluence with the St. Mary, giving it an immense water power, which is utilized by means of canals, which are lined with mills and factories. It has a very healthy location, and is a pleasant residence as well as a great manufacturing and commercial city. It has W. U. and M. U. Tel., and Adams, Am., U.S. and P. Ex. offices. Fred W. FRANKFORT. The seat of justice for Clinton county, is the most important city, of like size, in northern Indiana. It contains a population of 4,500, and is surrounded by a rich and productive agricultural district. Its railroad facilities are excellent, and comprise four roads as follows: F. & K. Div. T., C. & St. L., L., E. & W. Air Line Div. L., N. A. & C., and L. Div. T. H. & I. The city is distant from Indianapolis 50 miles, Lafayette 25 miles, Terre Haute 79 miles, and Logansport 37 miles; has good county buildings, very substantial business blocks, many fine residences, a volunteer fire department, several churches, good schools, 2 banks-1 private and I national—an opera house, telephone exchange, and several good hotels; of the last mentioned, the Coulter House is the most prominent; it was erected at a cost of $20,000, and is a handsome building with all modern improvements. The press is represented by 3 papers; the Banner and Crescent are weekly publications, and the Christian Press is issued monthly. Frankfort has gained the reputation of being the most enterprising, thrifty city in the State, and its general appearance well de-

PENSIONS Collects original and increase 48 Vance Block, Indianapolis. of Pensions and all other kinds a specialty. Correspondence solicited.

At the session of the Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, held in Lafayette, 1835, it was resolved to establish "The Indiana Asbury University." In due time a liberal charter was received from the Legislature, and a Preparatory School opened in 1836. Its career has been one of toil, sacrifice and success. Taking the lead of all such Institutions in the State in the number of its students and in general usefulness, it has deserved and acquired a wide-spread reputation.

Its success may be attributed to its adaptation to the wants of the people, its liberal courses of study and instruction, its progressive policy, and its strong moral and religious influence. The last few years have witnessed an encouraging growth. Its buildings are new, commodious, warmed by steam, and in comeliness and convenient arrangement for work equal to the best. The Course of Study has been enlarged, the Faculty strengthened, and considerable additions to the Endowment secured from noble and generous men and women.

There are full courses of Preparatory, Classical, Philosophical and Theological study. A wise margin of Elective Studies is allowed. The Library, Laboratories, Apparatus, etc., are in excellent condition for practical work. Tuition is free, in all departments, for both young men and women.

The Faculty consists of ALEXANDER MARTIN, D. D., LL. D., PRESIDENT, And Professor of Mental and Moral Science.

JOHN CLARK RIDPATH, LL. D., VICE-PRESIDENT, And Professor of Belles-Lettres and History.

REV. JOHN E. EARP, Ph. D., Professor of Rhetoric and Modern Languages.

HUNTING TON. The county seat of Huntington county, is an important commercial and manufacturing city of 5,000 inhabitants, pleasantly located on the Wabash river and the W., St. L. P. R'y, 118 miles southwest of Toledo, 105 northeast of Indianapolis and 318 east of St. Louis. This place was settled by Gen. John Tipton in 1833, and formerly called Flint Springs, it was then one of the principal camping grounds of the Wabash valley. Huntington is very attractive and one of the most progressive towns of its size on the Wabash R'y. It is governed by a mayor and common council, is lighted by gas, has good water works, an opera house, a fire department, 2 graded schools, several very handsome churches, excellent county and other public buildings, 3 hotels, 2 banks and 3 newspapers-- Herald, Democrat, (weeklies), and Lime City News, (daily and weekly). It has great natural wealth of immense from which is deposits the form of limestone from which is manufactured the best quality of lime in the In this branch of industry alone market. over 300 hands are employed. In addition to large lime kilns it has 6 saw mills, a potash factory, 3 planing mills, 4 flour mills, a pump factory, 1 stave and heading factory, 1 tannery, a flax bagging factory, 1 foundry, 2 furniture factories, handle factory, 1 brewery, cooper shop, a bent wood and spoke factory, 1 wooden stirrup factory and several large grain elevators. The last mentioned handle over 500,000 bushels of grain annually and are a great source of wealth to the city. With its many natural advantages, large grain trade, good water power, excellent transportation facilities, this city is surely destined to become at no distant day the chief commercial and manufacturing place of northern Indiana. INDIANAPOLIS.

The twenty-fourth city in population in the United States, is the capital and chief commercial city of Indiana, located on West fork of White river, in Marion county, 111 miles northwest of Cincinnati, 240 east of St. Louis, 195 southeast of Chicago, and 825 west of New York. The city was settled as the seat of government in 1820, laid out in 1821, and occupied as the capital in 1824.

GENERAL FEATURES AND CHARACTERISTICS.

Indianapolis is the largest inland town, and one of the greatest railroad centers, in the United States. It is situated nearly in the geographical centre of the State, surrounded by a fertile agricultural district. the climate is salubrious, and the resources of nature abound in great richness, consisting of inexhaustible coal fields and stone quarries to the south and west, and unculled forests on all sides, which, for the production of valuable timber, are unex-celled. The city is handsome in appear-ance, has much private wealth, is well laid out in wide, handsome streets, is lighted by gas and electricity, and for handsome residence property it probably has no equal in the United States. The sewerage of the city is excellent, its death mortality low; the location all that could be desired, either for commerce or manufacture, and her citizens are energetic, enterprising, and liberal, and there is no point more favorable for the location of all kinds of manufacturing establishments than this; and any legitimate enterprise will find all advantages to be desired, and will receive a hearty welcome and support. Within the last two years the city has made rapid progress, both in trade and manufacture. Among the more prominent industries recently established are the car works, steel rail mill, linseed oil mill, hominy mill, furniture factory, tallow rendering establishment, vinegar works, railroad frog and crossing works, and many smaller industries. It must be evident, even to the most casual observer, that Indianapolis has superior advantages for becoming a leading manufacturing city, and its facilities for the distribution of manufactured products are absolutely unsurpassed.

TRANSPORTATION FACILITIES.

Indianapolis has gained the reputation of being one of the largest railroad centres in the United States. It now has 13 roads, with others under contemplation which will be built in the near future. They are known as the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Indianapolis R'y., to Cincinnati, 123 miles; Cincinnati, Indianapolis, St. Louis & Chicago R'y., from Cincinnati to Indianapolis, 115 miles, and from Indianapolis to Kan-kakee, Ill., 139 miles; the Cleveland, Col-umbus, Cincinnati & Indianapolis R'y., to Cleveland, 283 miles; the Indiana, Bloomington & Western R'y., Peoria Division, to Peoria, 212 miles; Eastern Division, to Springfield, O., 142; St. Louis Division, to Decatur, Ill., 151 miles; the Indianapolis & St. Louis R. R., to St. Louis, 261 miles; the Indianapolis & Vincennes R. R., to Vincennes, 117 miles; the Jeffersonville, Madison & Indianapolis R. R., to Louisville, 110 miles; Chicago & Indianapolis Air Line, division of the Louisville, New Albany & Chicago R'y., to Chicago, 190 miles; the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati & St. Louis R'y., to Columbus, O., 188 miles; the St. Louis, Vandalia, Terre Haute & Indiaua-polis R. R. to St. Louis, 238 miles; the Wabash, St. Louis and Pacific to Michigan City, 161 miles, to Detroit 281 miles and the Belt R. R. and Stock Yard Company, which nearly surrounds the city, and by which all through traffic is transferred without blocking the streets of the city. The length of the road bed is about 12 miles, of which more than one-half is double tracked. It is connected by switches with every railroad line entering the city, excepting the Wabash, and it will soon have connection with that road. It also has switch connection with all prominent manufacturing establishments, and affords unparalleled facilities for the location of manufactories along its line. The establishing of a great majority of the manufactories within the last two years is due nearly entirely to the Belt Road, and it is safe to say that they would not have located here had it not been for this important road.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS.

This city is very compactly built, and has many handsome public buildings and business blocks. The most prominent are the Court House, which is a model of architectural beauty and handsome finish, erected at a cost of about $1,500,000. The new State House now under course of conwith stores and armament $881,000. The officers are 2 in number, Major Arnold, commandant, and Captain Rexford, commander of storage. Soldiers on duty, 25. The scenery at the Arsenal is exceedingly picturesque and attracts many visitors to the grounds.

THE STATE MUSEUM.

Was organized in the year 1870, by the State Geologist; it is located in the Gallup Block, corner Market and Tennessee. It has been quadrupled within the last 2 years and now contains more than 50,000 specimens of fossils carefully determined and scientifically arranged, with specimens of gems, ores, corals and crystalized rocks;

struction, will be, when completed, the most handsome and substantial of its kind, in The State benevolent and one of the west. the penal institutions are located here, and comprise the Insane Asylum, Institution for the Deaf and Dumb. The Blind Asylum and the Indiana Reformatory Institution for Women and Girls, which was established in 1869, opened for inmates in 1873. It has 2 departments, reformatory and penal. This institution is located just south of Woodruff Place, covers 10 acres of ground, on which is one large building erected at a cost of $150,-000. The grounds are a portion of the original State reservation, and are, in consequence, no considerable cost to the present establishment. The Government Arsenal was located at Indianapolis in 1862. different departments are under the command of the chief of ordnance, and cost to complete, including grounds, $641,000, also, a nearly complete collection of Indiana beetles, butterflies and land and fresh water shells; likewise, about 10,000 specimens giving a full exhibit in specimens representing the prehistoric age, the latter so complete as to be of special importance to Indianapolis and attractive to tourist and traveler. The Geological Library is quite complete. The Stone Age is not forgotten. Building stone specimens from this State are now on exhibition, from which visitors are apprised of the unparalleled superiority of this material. The city Court House at Chicago, the Indiana State House and Court House, the Custom House at Louisville, and a portion of Vanderbilt's palace, the crypt of General Lee's monument in Virginia, new Cotton Exchange at New Orleans, are constructed of this material; while over 1,500 car loads have been transported to St. Louis to be used in Trade has been greatly augmented by the government establishing here a custom house or port of delivery. Goods can now be imported from foreign countries to this city as cheaply and expeditiously as to New York. Importations, for the first 6 months, from July 1st to December 31st, 1881, amounted to in value, $69,728, and the duties paid thereon, was $27,616.67.

The pork-packing interest is one of the most important in the city, and gives employment to a large number of hands. The following shows the business done by the several packing houses in 1879, 1880, and 1881:

STOCK YARDS.

The Union Stock Yards are the most complete in equipments and appointments of any in the West, excepting Chicago only; their shed room, stabling and pens are all under roof and thoroughly under-drained and supplied with feed racks and water troughs throughout. The Exchange Hotel, a fine brick building with several fine offices, adorns the grounds and furnishes room for the officers of the Belt R. R., and a number of live-stock commission firms. This institution, beyond all mere business calculation, has an importance in Indianapolis that can not be computed. Its receipts and shipments for 1881 are shown by the following tabulated statement:

BANKS

Indianapolis now has 12 banks, with an aggregate capital and surplus of $3,308,734, and deposits amounting to $11,428,415. All the banks are members of the Clearing House Association. The transaction of this concern for 1881 amounted to $109,557,213, and for the first six months of 1882 it reached $51,539,686. The following is a summary of the banks, giving name, capital, surplus and deposits:

Name.	Capital.	Surpl's	Deposits.

Total......$2,981,734 $327,000 $11,428,415

*The First National was re-chartered Sept. 1, 1881, and the first bank in the U. S. to receive a re-charter.

HOTELS.

The hotels of Indianapolis rank second to none in the west, and it is no exaggeration to say that better accommodations are nowhere to be found, and that railroad officials and the traveling public are generally aware of this fact, and make a point of stopping over here whenever business will admit. There is probably no feature of a city that so materially gives it notoriety as its hotels, and in this point Indianapolis has gained a reputation well earned by the many hotels here.

MINNESOTA CHIEF SEPARATOR.

There are only four Driving Belts on the Separator, Viz:

One main belt, running from the Cylinder and driving the Fan; one small belt driving the only Beater in the machine; one belt driving the Grain Rake, and one belt driving the Straw Carrier. It is neither a Vibrator nor an Apron Machine, but far surpasses either in all the essential requisites of a Perfect Thresher. It is easy of management, light running, capable of very rapid threshing, as the Separating Table and Seives will take eare of all that can be passed the Cylinder. In separating and cleaning it excels all others. It threshes everything a farmer has to thresh—wheat, Rye, Oats, Barley, Flax, Timothy, Millet, Clover and Peas—It handles Flax and Timothy, nearly as rapidly as grain, requiring no change of parts, except seives, and cleans them fit for market. With its Clover Attachment it threshes Clover fully equal to any Huller. It is by far the most popular Separator in the market, outselling all others wherever known. It invariably secures the most and best jobs of threshing.

The Institution was formed by the union of the Indiana Medical College and the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Indiana, a union consummated in deference to the views of the Medical Profession throughout the State. The large measure of success which has attended this concentration of the resources and patronage of the two Colleges is a complete vindication of the wisdom and sound judgment of all who labored to accomplish that union.

Cheapness In Removing Stumps and Rock.

We thank our patrons for past favors, and in offering

Hercules for 1882-3,

Do so, relying on its merits alone. Hercules is the original and only absolute safe high explosive for stump blasting.

We Challenge the World

For another mixture that will compare with it when submitted to the closest scrutiny of scientific chemists and experts. Some of our would-be rivals have exactcopies of our old cuts and tools. They assume as theirs what is a part of our own stock in trade. We caution the public against them. For prices and estimates on work, call on or address

SOF INDIANA.

99 NORTH NEW JERSEY STREET, INDIANAPOLIS.

GENERAL PRINCIPLES.—The College was organized and has been conducted in the interests of medical truth, as established in nature; the development and perpetuation of those grand and beautiful principles, which ever have for their object the conservation of the vital powers of the physical organization. It boldly accepts such truths as are unmistakably established, it matters not from what source they come. Science, truth, principle, are based upon immutable laws, and are unchangeable. To know the laws: to ascertain the principles governed by those laws and deport its teachings in accordance with the same, is the object of the college instruction.

DEAR SIRS-I recently purchased of F. M. Bachman, Esq., 49 North Illinois St, a bar of your "BEST ON EARTH" brand of soap, and have subjected it to a thorough chemical analysis, I therefore inform all whom it may concern that it contains no acids, alkalies or other materials that are in any way injurious to the most delicate fabrics. RESPECTFULLY,

June 7, 1880,

A. B. HALL, Chemist.

LAFAYETTE. This beautiful commercial and manufacturing city of 25,000 inhabitants, is located on the Wabash river 64 miles northwest of Indianapolis, 131 southeast of Chicago, 179 northwest of Cincinnati and 233 east of St. Louis. It is the county seat of Tippecanoe county, was in-corporated a city in 1853, is the second in size and importance in northern Indiana, and is not excelled by any in the State for activity and general prosperity. The city has a splendid location, is regularly laid out in broad, wide streets, is lighted by gas, has a good police force, a well-equipped and efficient fire department and the finest water works in the State, the last mentioned were erected at a cost of $300,000, which has necessitated a bonded debt of $275,000. Prominent among its public buildings are the Purdue University, 25 handsome church edifices, 5 public school buildings, a number of handsome business blocks, an opera house and a court house under course of construction, at an estimated cost of $300,-000, which will be one of the finest strnctures of its kind in the State. The transportation facilities of Lafayette are very good, and comprise four of the leading roads that traverse the State, as follows: the W., St. L. & P., C., I., St. L. & C., L., N. A. & C. and the L. E. & W., which gives it unbroken connection with all of the leading roads in the United States.

The city has township, public school, and Y. M. C. A. libraries, an artesian well, several good hotels, a telephone exchange, herdic coach line, a good business college, and 6 banks-4 national, 1 savings and 1 private. It has an unusually strong press representation, which includes 3 daily, 8 weekly, 1 semi-monthly and 1 monthly sheet. The dailies are known as Dispatch, Courier and Journal; weeklies as the Deutsch Amerikaner, Dispatch, Journal, Our Herald, Courier, Sunday Morning Leader, Home Jour-nal and the Sunday Times. The Trade Journal is issued semi-monthly, and the Christian Worker, monthly. Prominent among its many manufacturing establishments are 3 foundries, 1 paper mill, a sugar refinery, 2 hominy mills, car works, 3 pump factories, 3 planing mills, 5 boot and shoe factories, 2 tanneries, 2 furniture factories, 3 grain elevators, 2 cooper shops, a corn planter factory, 2 breweries, 1 oil and soap factory, 3 packing houses, an iron fence factory, 2 saw mills and several flour mills. The city is in one of the most fertile agricultural districts to be found in the Wabash valley, and this with its water facilities, healthy location, excellent railroads, close proximity to the coal fields of both Indiana and Illinois, makes it a very desirable point for manufacture and commerce. The P., U. S., Am., and L., N. A. & C. Ex., and W. U. and M. U. Tel. Companies, have offices William S. Lingle, postmaster.

Prominent among last mentioned is the well known Teegarden House, which has a well earned reputation of being one of the best hotels in the State.

Its religious and educational facilities consist of 15 churches, 1 high and 6 graded schools and Holmes' Short Hand Business College which has gained a reputation for thoroughness and is a well conducted in-stitution in every respect. The city has a bonded debt of $82,000 and real and personal property—assessed value—amounting to over $2,500,000. Among its recent improvements is the new Opera House, a handsome building erected at a cost of $30,000, with a seating capacity of 1,200. Its newspapers are known as follows: Journal, Argus and Herald-Chronicle, all weekly publications, which with 5 religious monthly sheets give it a strong and influential press influence.

The manufacturing interests of this city are very extensive and comprise 3 flour mills, a chair factory, 1 woolen mill, 1 furniture factory, 2 foundries, wheel works, a pump factory, tannery, 2 cooper shops, 1 brewery, water wheel works, ma-chine shops, plow factory, a carriage wood work factory, and the extensive foundry and works of M. & J. Rumley. These establishments are gaining a reputation over the United States that at once advertises Laporte as a first class manufacturing city. There is a daily stage route from here to Hatch's Mills and Heston, and a semiweekly route to Three Oaks, Mich. The W. U. Tel. and U. S. Ex. Companies have Samuel A. Bagley, postoffices here. master.

Besides chairs—but on the same devise—we make Child's Cribs or Cradles of all grades and styles, with spindle sides, banisters and panel ends and sides, veneered and plain. These cribs like the chairs, are much preferred on account of their agreeable motion, freedom from noise and from danger of turning over. They are easily taken down and as quickly set up again. All finished in oil-

To meet a general demand, we also make a few neat Sets of Parlor Furniture, matching some of our chairs.

Our goods do their own speaking; wherever they go they are welcome. Our Carving, Gilding and Finishing are performed by artistic hands. The construction is safe and durable; the material is select and well seasoned Walnut, Maple and Cherry.

LOGANSPORT. This thrifty manufacturing city of 15,000 inhabitants, the county seat of Cass county, is pleasantly situated on the Wabash and Eel rivers, 70 miles northwest of Indianapolis, 116 southeast of Chicago and 270 east of St. Louis. It is the western terminus of E. R. Div. W., St. L. & P., northern of L. Div. T. H. & I. R. R's, and is traversed by second and third Div's. of the P., C. & St. L. and main line of the W., St. L. & P. Rys. Logans-port was platted in 1828, and in the year following was made the county seat. Since 1860, the city has been rapidly increasing in both trade and population, and is now a prosperous, busy place, with clean, wide streets, handsome residences, excellent business blocks, and fair county buildings, it is lighted by gas, has good water works, a well-equipped fire department, good schools, and several churches comprising the following religious denominations: Baptist, Methodist, Catholic, Presbyterian, Episcopal, Lutheran, Christian and German Reformed. Its other prominent features are an opera house, 2 na ional banks, large bridges, and 5 newspapers. The last named are known as follows: The Advertiser (published daily), Pharos and Journal (issued both daily and weekly), and The Chronicle, which is issued weekly only. The city is rapidly increasing in manufacture, and its manufactured goods are rapidly becoming known as among the best in the country. The most prominent products of its many mills, factories, etc., consist of organs, beer barrels, cooperage stock, flour, water wheels, mill machinery, castings, pumps, log holders, carriage, wagon, and agricultural implement wood work, boilers, linseed oil, soap, lumber, leather, woolen goods, carriages, MADISON. Is an important manufacturing and commercial city of 9,000 inhabitants, pleasantly located on the Ohio river at the southern terminus of the J., M. & I. R. R., 86 miles southeast of Indianapolis and 100 below Cincinnati. This is the oldest city in southeastern Indiana, and is a steady growing, enterprising town. It is lighted by gas, has good water works, an efficient fire department, good police force, several miles of street railway, churches of all popular religious denominations, 6 graded schools, the Academy of Our Lady of Angels, and a public library. The as-sessed value of its real and personal property is over $4,000,000, and it has a bouded debt of $208,000. The public buildings are very substantial and residences quite handsome. There are supported 8 hotels, 2 national banks, and 5 newspapers. The last mentioned are known as follows: The Star and Courier, dailies, and the Herald, Star and Courier which are issued weekly. The manufactories here are rapidly increasing both in size and number and are reckoned as among the most substantial in the State. Prominent among its manufactured goods are packing boxes, copper goods, spokes, staves, heading, boats, starch, sash, doors and blinds, paper, soda fountains, blacking, furniture, woolen goods, beer, stirrups, brass goods, wheels, mineral water, boilers, chairs, brick, drain tile, hosiery, iron, ear drums, flour, barrels, lumber, canned goods, saddle trees, horse collars and leather. Madison is destined to become one of the most important river towns in the State, as has most excellent transportation facilities and good location. Ex., Adams. Tel., W. U. John W. Link, postmaster.

MARION. Was first settled in 1820. It is a growing, prosperous, incorporated town, the seat of justice for Grant county, located on the P., C. & St. L., C., W. & M. and T., D. & B. R. R.'s, 70 miles northwest of Indianapolis. The city contains a population of 4,000, is regularly laid out in broad streets, has a volunteer fire department composed of 3 hose reels, most excellent water works, is well lighted by gas, has 4 school buildings and 7 churches— Presbyterian, Methodist, Christian, Adventist and Catholic. Among the recent improvements here is a handsome court house, now nearly completed, costing about \$175,-000, and the Grand View Hotel, now nearing completion, which will rank as a strictly first-class hotel, $4\frac{1}{2}$ stories high, all outside rooms, excellent sample rooms and all modern improvements, including passenger elevator. It has numerous handsome, substantial business blocks which are a credit to the city. Marion has 2 banks, 5 hotels, 1 opera house and 3 weekly newspapers-Grant County Republican, Marion Chronicler and the Marion Democrat. The manufacturing interests of the city are represented by 3 flour mills, 3 planing mills, 2 flax mills, a stave and heading factory, 1 foundry, 2 saw mills, 1 handle fac-tory, a linseed oil mill, 1 hub and spoke factory and a bentwood factory. The Mississinewa river furnishes power for several of the above mentioned mills and factories. The bonded indebtedness of the city amounts to \$45,000. It has no floating debt, and with the excellent rail facilities which it now has is one of the most important commercial towns of its size in Northern Indiana. Its chief exports are lumber, pork, grain, flax, and linseed oil. Ex., Am., U. S., and Adams. Tel., W. U. Daily mail. Jacob N. Wells, postmaster. Addington J S, barber.

MARTINSVILLE. Is an incorporated town of 2500 inhabitants, the county seat of Morgan county, located on I. & V. and F. F. & M. R. R's, 30 miles southwest of Indianapolis. It was platted in 1823, incorporated in 1863 and is known as a progressive, growing town generally. The assessed value of real and personal property amounts to $1,090,045. It has good county buildings, a public hall, 6 churches, representing the following religous demonstra-tions: Methodist, Christian, Presbyterian and Catholic; a graded school, 1 national and 2 private banks, 4 hotels and 2 weekly newspapers-the Gazette and Republican. Indian creek flows by the village and White river is only 1 mile distant. The other industries here are 4 saw mills, 2 tanneries, 3 flour mills, a pork packing house and 2 planing mills. The surrounding country is slightly undulating, but quite fertile.

MICHIGAN CITY. This flourishing city of 8,000 inhabitants is pleas-antly located on Lake Michigan, in Laporte county, 12 miles northwest of Laporte court house, 161 northwest of Indianapolis and 56 southeast of Chicago. It is traversed by the M. C., I., P. & C. Div. W., St. L. & P. and L., N. A. & C. R'ys, and has one of the finest harbors on the lake. The most important industry here is the lumber trade. During the year 1881 over 150,000,-000 feet of lumber was handled by nine firms in the business, which makes it the most extensive lumber market in the State. In addition to this traffic the city has large commercial trade and the following manufactories: 2 planing mills, a refrigerator factory, 1 flour mill, 1 chair factory, car works, hosiery factory, brewery, cooper shop and a carriage woodwork factory. Michigan City was laid out in 1831, incorporated March 8, 1836, and is the present location of 10 churches, several schools, 1 academy, the Indiana Prison North, a public hall, 2 banks and 4 hotels. The assessed value of real and personal property amounts to over $2,500,000. It has a bonded debt of $40,000, is lighted by gas, has good water works, a well equipped and efficient fire department, telephone exchange, several substantial business blocks and handsome residences. Its general appearance denotes thrift and enterprise and it is undoubtedly one of the most important towns of itz size in the State. The press is represented by the Dispatch (daily and weekly), and the Enterprise (weekly). Lumber is the principal article of export. It has Am., U. S. and L., N. A. & C. Ex. and W. U. and M. versed by the C. & G. T., and L. S. & M. S. R. R's, and for its size is the most important manufacturing place in northern Indiana. Mishawaka was settled in 1834, incorporated a town in 1837, and now contains 10 churches, 3 graded schools, an opera house, 1 hotel, a bank, 1 weekly newspaper—Enterprise—several fine business blocks, and quite a number of hand-some residences. There is probably no better water power in the State than what is furnished here by the St. Joseph river, and this, together with its excellent rail facilities, makes it one of the most eligible points for manufacture to be found in Indiana. Prominent among the mills, factories, etc., located here are 3 wind mill factories, 4 saw mills, a telegraph insulator factory, 1 woolen mill, wood pulp mill, refrigerator factory, paper mill, school furniture factory, 1 brewery, bent wood factory, 3 flour mills, 2 pump factories, cooper shop, 2 furniture factories, an extensive plow and cultivator factory, and an ax factory, nearly all of which derive power from the river.

NORMAL COLLEGE

PRACTICAL BUSINESS INSTITUTE,

MITCHELL, LAWRENCE COUNTY, INDIANA.

HISTORY.

Founded April 6, 1880, this institution in two years has received nearly one thousand different students from the States of Indiana, Illinois, Kentucky, Ohio and Maryland. The graduates number sixty-five from the Classical, Scientific and Teachers' Departments, and sixteen from the Commercial Department. Beginning without suitable buildings or apparatus, the institution now has the most commodious and beautiful building in the State used for the purpose, a full line of apparatus and a choice reference library. The attendance has increased at a rapid rate until there is no doubt in regard to the statement that the career of the college has been wonderfully prosperous.

DEPARTMENTS.

Recognizing the impossibility of sustaining a department connected with all the professions, this institution confines its efforts to the legitimate work of a college for the people, at which they are trained for the great office of teacher or thoroughly developed by a liberal education. In order to accomplish this work the following departments are equipped and sustained:

Classical-4 years with Preparatory.

Scientific-3 years with Preparatory.

Teachers'-2 years with Preparatory.

Commercial—2 terms after the Preparatory.

Engineering-3 terms.

Musical-1 year.

Preparatory—Time required varies with advancement.

Persons are admitted to any of these classes upon passing examination in the subjects previously completed by the class. In this manner any of the courses may be finished in less than the required time. The instruction is so thorough and practical that the graduates have no difficulty in obtaining first-class positions. Though the standard is placed so high, yet students of any grade of advancement find classes suited to their needs.

EXPENSES.

The great obstacle in the way of young men and ladies who have only limited means with which to obtain an education, is removed at this institution. The cost of living is reduced to the most reasonable point. The total expense, including board and tuition, is less than that required simply to live at other places. Yet the management make no claims to cheap boarding houses, as if that were all the students desired.

SCHOOL YEAR AND CALENDAR.

School year is divided into five terms: four containing ten weeks each, and one (summer term) seven weeks, and a vacation of five weeks in July and August.

FALL TERM (1882) OPENSSEPTE	MBER 5,	1882.

MUNCIE. This handsome, incorporated city of 6,000 inhabitants, the county seat of Delaware county, is pleasantly located on White river, 65 miles south of Fort Wayne, 54 northeast of Indianapolis, and 45 northwest of Richmond. It is traversed by the L. E. & W., C., C., C. & I. and Ft. W., C. & L. R. R's. Muncie was incorporated a city in 1865, carries a bonded debt of $9,000, has real and personal property (assessed value), amounting to $1,901,-590, good water works, an efficient fire department, excellent county buildings, a public library of 4,000 volumes, an opera house with a seating capacity of 800, substantial business blocks, and is well lighted by gas. Its religious and educational facilities are very great, and comprise churches of nearly all the popular religious denominations, I high and 3 large graded schools. Other prominent business features here include 3 banks, 6 hotels and 4 newspapers; the latter are known as the Times and News, published both daily and weekly, and the Advertiser and Democrat, issued weekly, only. This is an important manufacturing place; prominent among its manufactured products, are engines, flour, organs, barrels, machinery, lumber, sash, doors and blinds, handles, hubs and spokes, flax, bagging, corn planters, roller skates, brick, pumps, staves, drain tile, brooms, carriages and heading. It has U. S. and Am. Ex., and W. U. Tel. offices. John C. Eiler, postmaster.

NEW ALBANY. The second town in population and commerce on the Ohio river, is the county seat of Floyd county. It is distant from Indianapolis 110, from Chicago 344, and from Cincinnati 128 miles. The city is nearly opposite Louisville, Ky., with which it has hourly connection, both by rail and boat, thus giving it all the transportation facilities enjoyed by the latter place, which, together with the Ohio river boats, L., N. A. & C., J., M. & I., and L., E. & St. L. R'ys, give it unexcelled advantages for cheap transportation. It was laid out as early as 1813, and is to-day for its size one of the most important manufacturing towns in Indiana, giving employment to over 4,000 hands, the De-Pauw American Plate Glass Works alone employing over 1,000, and this, with several other mills, factories, etc., engaged in the manufacture of furniture, forgings, railroad iron, leather, woolen goods, cotton batting, brick, hosiery, castings, cooperage, oil stoves, boilers, engines, carriage wood stock, handles, boats, beer, stoves, brass goods, flour, boots and shoes, edge tools, fertilizers, lumber, spokes, carriages, glue, queensware, iron fence, sash, doors, blinds, tobacco boxes, car axles and pumps, comprise the manufacturing industries of the Its educational and religious advancity. tages are unexcelled and comprise churches of nearly all denominations, excellent graded and high schools, the New Albany Business College, and the DePauw College for Young Women. The last mentioned is a meritorious institution well conducted, and rapidly growing in favor, having increased the membership of students 100 per cent. during the last year, and extended the course of study two years. The city has a population of 17,500, carries a bonded debt of $393,809, is well lighted by gas, has excellent water works, an efficient and well equipped fire department, several miles of street railway, substantial county buildings, fine business blocks, and many handsome residences. It supports 5 banks-1 private and 4 national-a good opera house, city hall, and several hotels. The press is represented by the Ledger (daily and weekly), Public Press, Herald, Review, and Deutsche Zeitung (weekly), and the Das Echo Der Gegenuart and der Zeilgeist (semi-monthly). New Albany has every facility for manufacture in the way of cheap transportation and fuel, and its location is unexcelled. It has Adams and L., N. A. & C. Ex. and W. U. Tel. offices. Madison M. DEPARTMENTS.

NORMAL.

For those desiring to review the Common Branches, or pursue a select course of study.

THEORETICAL.

Here the elementary principles governing the science of accounts is first elucidated. The theory of Debit and Credit, the nature and objects of accounts as applied to persons and things, Journalizing, Posting, Closing Accounts, making out Trial Balance and Balance Sheet, Ascertaining Losses and Gains, etc., are fully explained, and having thoroughly mastered the work to this point, the student is soon able to grasp and comprehend the grand principles of Book-keeping.

ACTUAL BUSINESS.

The student here first assumes the responsibility of conducting business upon his own account. He is supplied with a cash capital with which he goes to the Real Estate Office, rents his store, receives his lease, pays his rent, purchases his goods and commences business. The books here used are the Column Journal, Ledger and Bill Books, together with Blank Notes, Drafts, Checks, Bill Heads, Invoices, Account Sales, Pass Book, Deposit Tickets, Certificates of Deposit, etc.

OFFICE DEPARTMENT.

This Department is completely fitted out with elegant sets of large books, such as are used in extensive business houses in large cities. Here the student learns the tact and energy of the successful and shrewd business man. Eight large, handsomely fitted offices, representing all lines of business, are in daily operation.

PENMANSHIP.

This Department is without a rival in the United States. Great enthusiasm is awakened, and in every case a neat, rapid business hand is acquired. The Ornamental Department is designed especially for those desiring to teach the Art. Instruction is given in Off-hand Flourishing, Pen Drawing, Lettering, Card Writing, Engraving, Specimen Work, etc. Pen work of every variety executed in the finest possible style. Send 25 cents for finely executed specimens of writing and flourishing.

TELEGRAPH.

In charge of this Department is an able instructor, of nine years' experience. We guarantee a full course in three months. Each student will be able to receive thirty words per minute, or tuition will be refunded.

Evening School Six Months in the Year.

DIPLOMA.—A Diploma will be awarded to students completing the course, with an average of ninety per cent.

LOCATION.—New Castle is the healthiest town in Indiana, situated on the lines of the P., C. & St. L., Ft. W., C. & L., N., C. & R. and the I., B. & W. Railways, affording direct connection from all points north, south, east and west.

THITION.

Send for handsome Catalogue.
